

President of the Faculty Senate

---

TO: UALR Faculty
FROM: Andrew Wright
SUBJECT: New College Executive Committee Elections
DATE: April 2, 2014

The election meeting for the executive committee for the three new colleges (Arts, Letters, and Sciences; Education and Health Professions; Social Sciences and Communications) will be held on Thursday, April 3rd according to the following schedule:

Social Sciences and Communications – 10:00-11:00

Education and Health Professions – 11:00-12:00

Arts, Letters, and Sciences – 12:00-1:00

The meetings will be held in the EIT Auditorium.

The agenda for each meeting will be as follows:

- I. Welcome and Introduction (Andrew Wright)
- II. Nominations from the Floor
- III. Open Forum
- IV. Adjourn to Polling Place (EIT Dean's Office)
- V. Voting from 1:00-5:00
- VI. Adjourn

The purpose of the Open Forum is to engage in discussion about what business the college might want to conduct in its following meeting.

Nominations for:

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Parliamentarian

may be made in advance to Andrew Wright (abwright@ualr.edu, 569-8071, EIT 521) until noon on the day before the meeting. Nominations may be made from the floor.

Nominees will be posted on the Faculty Senate Web Site (new and improved!) as they arrive, see <http://ualr.edu/facultysenate-4andw>.

There will be a follow on meeting to conduct a Run-Off Election (if necessary) no less than a week following the Election Meeting. This meeting will also be used to conduct business for agenda items developed during the open forum. The meeting will be run, if possible, by the newly elected President. If no President was elected, the President of the Faculty Senate will run the meeting.
